PARENTING HELPS

Parents,

When you are a parent, you give, invest, and sacrifice for your family. We are so thankful for all that you invest in the lives of your children!

This month we want to take things in a little different direction and focus on you. It's really simple. A healthy parent will lead their wild, fun, messy, (insert whatever word you need) family toward health.

This month we want to talk about your health. How are you doing? How are you caring for your soul as a parent?

Here is our coaching video for the month:

Praying for you as you ask yourself these questions!

Your Partner in Parenting,

Benjy Linder
